

OPPOSES FEDERAL CINEMA CENSORS

Mrs. Locher, of District Women's Clubs Movies Committee, Against Proposal.

DENOUNCES IMMORAL PLAYS

Says Western Dance Halls Now Found Only in Eastern Films.

"I am not in favor of Federal censorship of motion pictures, but I do object to the Commissioners and the police allowing pictures of this description to be shown about this city for nine weeks."

Mrs. Jacob John Locher, chairman of the motion picture committee of the District Federation of Women's Clubs, made this statement this morning before the Social Service Conference at St. John's Parish Hall, in connection with a picture she had just described.

Sordid Themes. She displayed advertising relating to the picture and said it had been described in advertising matter as showing "The greatest criminals of Paris in the most daring exploits."

Canon W. L. DeVries, president of the conference, during an open discussion, remarked:

"Just as we do not censor our newspapers so we should not censor motion pictures."

Canon DeVries added that he favored a law which would prohibit attendance of children at motion picture shows unless accompanied by parents.

Praises Movement. Mrs. Locher was the principal speaker before the conference, which embraces the Episcopal Churches in the diocese of Washington. She made an appeal for the support of the children's matinees which she had arranged under the auspices of the club women. Explaining that free demonstration matinees already have been given, Mrs. Locher said:

"Today begins the battle of the pay matinees. If mothers fail to support this movement you can't blame managers for not giving us the pictures we want."

"We fear Federal censorship because it would be open to political and money influences. There always would be this danger."

Varying Judgments. She told of one picture which had been approved by women and commended by a clergyman which, after its showing to the children, had been taken off by the manager of another house as being objectionable.

She said the worst film she had ever seen, from a moral standpoint, had run through three circuits in Washington unquestioned, and then had been stopped by a mayor in one Western city and the ban had been put on it in other cities.

"As a Westerner," she remarked, "I wish to protest against the dance hall scenes. These halls have been cleaned up in the West long ago, and about the best place to view them now is in the motion pictures of the East."

WIPED HANDS ON FLAG

But Unfortunately Was Seen by Federal Officer.

When Quartermaster Lutzsch, Coast Guard Service, on recruiting duty in New York saw a greasy-handed citizen of the United States calmly walk up and wipe those same greasy hands on the American flag, he felt his anger slowly rise to his head, then concentrate in his good right arm.

Without a word of introduction, the quartermaster walked up to the man and smote him on the jaw. The smitten one crumpled and fell to the pavement.

Fearing that his action would cause trouble, he wrote to the Treasury Department in explanation.

Today he is the proud possessor of a letter from Byron Newton, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, commending him heartily for his action.

TALK OF EXTRA SESSION

Delay on Legislative Bill Makes Jam Likely.

Slow progress on the legislative bill in the Senate caused renewal of extra session talk about the Capitol today.

It is pointed out that if other important appropriation bills take as much time, little more will be done this winter but deal with the supply measures. In fact, the question is being asked whether all of them will be passed. However, if there is a jam in the closing days of the session, as expected, no doubt some of them will be rushed through with little consideration.

Long debate is looked for over the revenue legislation and the railroad program is still in the air.

Democratic leaders admit that failure to pass revenue legislation or railroad legislation may lead to an extra session.

MUSICAL FOR BLIND.

Mrs. Ritchie McGrann, with accompaniments played by Miss Casselman, will give a musicale for the blind in the Library of Congress next Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

GREATEST SEA HUNT IN HISTORY STARTED

Allied Warships Sweep South Atlantic for Daring German Raider.

were traveling without lights—having received warning to watch out for possible raiders—and as soon as we sighted the stranger, we changed our course.

"Then we saw two strangers—and a second time shifted our course, hoping to slip away unseen in the darkness. But the two vessels had apparently sighted us, despite our lack of lights, and then gave proof of this by immediately putting on full speed and bearing down in our direction."

Soon Overhauled.

"I crammed by boilers and did my best to hurry away, but with our ten knots maximum speed, it was soon apparent from the way the two strangers overhauled us that it was useless to try to elude them. Both apparently were capable of at least eight knots. Pretty soon they were close by. When they were almost alongside I gave the alarm and everybody aboard donned life-belts. We were fairly certain then that the raider or raiders we had been warned about was after us."

"After lying to, there came aboard us very shortly six German officers and twenty men. They took charge of my vessel, seized the cargo of coffee which we carried, and took off a considerable amount of food. Then they gave us time in which to gather and pack a few personal effects before putting us in boats."

Put Bombs in Ship.

In the meantime he had planted two explosive bombs on each side of my ship. When we were all off, including the Germans, these were exploded. The vessel sank at 2:45 a. m., on January 8.

"A prisoner aboard one of our captors, I saw two other vessels sunk on January 9, and one on January 10—all three being destroyed by exactly the same fashion. Whenever the sinking took place during daylight hours a German cinema man aboard the raider calmly and methodically cranked away taking pictures of the sinking."

"I was told by the captain of the two vessels that he had ordered to spare all passengers and all vessels carrying big cargoes."

Kept in Close Quarters.

"We were kept in the port bow compartment of the vessel to which we were transferred. The quarters were almost without air and for five days

Corns Peel Right Off With "Gets-It"

2 Drops, and the Corn Is a "Goner!" When you've got to walk on the sides of your shoe to get away from those awful corn-pains, there's only one common-sense thing to do. Put Use "Gets-It" Your Corns Won't Swell in Water. Besides They'll Shrink, Loosen and Peel Off!

2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It" on the corn right away. Pain and inflammation will disappear, the corn will begin to shrivel from that instant—then it loosens and falls right off.

There's no other corn-remover in the world that acts like "Gets-It." No new discovery has been made in corn-removers since "Gets-It" was born. Don't forget that fact. "Gets-It" does away forever with the use of salves that irritate, bandages that make a bundle of your toes, plasters that do the work, knives and scissors that draw blood. Use "Gets-It"—no more digging or cutting.

"Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Washington and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by O'Donnell's Drug Stores, People's Drug Stores, P. G. Aglick—Adv.

we were compelled to live and sleep in this cramped, stuffy fashion, sleeping with Hindoos and other rough-necked. Then we met the Japanese steamer Hudson Maru and all on our ship were transferred to that vessel except coolies.

"The Hudson Maru was dispatched to Pernambuco with barely enough water and sea biscuits to complete the voyage."

The preceding sections of the log had detailed how the Radnorshire left Bahia on January 5, and asserted the spot at which she sighted the raiders was 100 miles east of Pernambuco.
